Projected Departures.-July 1, stmr. China, via Honolulu; Aug. 1, stmr. Oceanic, via Honolulu, for China and Japan. June 7, stmr.

The schooner J. G. North, which arrived from Mahukona a few days ago, says the S. F. Post of May 17, is alongside at Mission street wharf, where she will discharge her cargo of refined sugar. This is the second cargo of the kind which has ever reached the coast. The North broke the record on her trip up, making the passage in 11 days and 3 hours.

The steamer Monowai, which arrived Friday from Australia, says the S. F. Chronicle of May 14th, will be withdrawn after one more trip and another and faster vessel substituted. The passenger accommodations of the Monowai are very fine in every way, but in speed the steamer is not a modern boat. The steamer has been running on the Australian mail in conjunction with the Oceanic company's steamers for two years. There was some talk when the Monowai left Sydney of the Union company putting on an independent line of three mail steamers between here and the Australian colonies if colonial mail contracts can be secured next November.

The brig John D. Spreckels, which had a narrow escape from being Allèdice, Mr Dunn, 5 Blackhall, Mr Belowitz, C Alama, E A Ake, Rev J P Kui, Rev Jiro Okabe, Mrs Smith and 2 children, Lee Shou, and 49 deck.

For San Ffancisco, per bkt wrecked near Point Diablo on the Marin coast. While sailing into ful to handle the brig in the tide rip and whistled for the Farragut. Together the two steamers towed the brig out of danger and to a safe anchorage off Folsom street pier. A. Paladini, the managing owner of the steamers, will claim about $6000 as salvage for saving the brig and her valuable cargo. About a year ago the brig got into a similar predicament and was rescued by the steamer Farragut.
